

Dear Betsy,

Over the years I've attended many book reviews and yours was the best ever.

you were Gertrude Bell !!
you brought her alive not only by telling her story but by including the pertinent props. The maps, bench, oriental rug and wine added so much.

you have whetted my appetite with your other suggestions.

I look forward to seeing you again.

Fondly,

Dona-lee Trotter